

Please register my disapproval of any further consolidation of the public airwaves by private companies. The media monopolies that have already been created are severely limiting the public's access to wide and varied points of view. Local perspectives are increasingly being directed by a "what's good for the corporation" mandate. The airwaves are a public trust, not a private bully pulpit for "big business."